Lirriwi Tourism

Lirriwi Tourism was established in 2010 to develop and promote Yolŋu tourism in Arnhem Land. The main objective is to create a new economy for Yolŋu people of East Arnhem Land through tourism. It does this by bringing people together to share Yolŋu culture, connecting Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people. Lirriwi Tourism operates one day tours, and multi-day tours, spending time with the Yolŋu people living and working on their traditional homelands. Tour participants become part of a family community and take part in daily activities. Participants learn about Moiety – Yirratja and Dhuwa (Kinship) and how the Yolŋu people are connected to the land and to each other, one big Earth balanced.
