

GEORGE DUNNE AWARD OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION BY AN INDIVIDUAL

This award recognises the extraordinary personal and professional achievement and contribution by an individual over many years to the Northern Territory tourism industry.

George Dunne was a highly respected Territorian who had a long affinity with the Brolga Awards since they commenced in 1987. George joined the Northern Territory Tourist Commission in 1980 and was Regional Director until 1998 when he was then appointed Ministerial Adviser to the Minister for Tourism and Chief Minister. George was also an active and passionate executive member on a number of Boards and Committees throughout the Northern Territory. A recipient of the Outstanding Contribution by an Individual Award in 1991, George later received the Tourism Minister's Perpetual Trophy in 2008.

Important notes:

- The award will not be made to the same person twice.
- Nominations are acceptable from any party except the nominee.
- The candidate will not be notified that their name has been put forward for consideration.
- The award will be presented at the discretion of the judges, based on the submissions received.
- This category is awarded at the Northern Territory level - winners do not become finalists at the Australian Tourism Awards.
- The national Outstanding Contribution by an Individual (or Tourism Legend) is a separate nomination process, focussing on an individuals' national contribution.

Judging:

The panel will consider all candidates on their own merits. The panel will be looking for people who have made a long term professional and personal contribution to the Northern Territory tourism industry and, if relevant, Australian tourism industry.

They will consider in particular, the activities and contribution of the candidate outside the expectations of their normal employment.

Judges will score on:

Commitment to professional development over past 12 months	(10 points)
Professional contribution and service to NT tourism industry	(20 points)
Personal contribution and service to the NT	(20 points)

Announcement of the winner:

The winner will be announced at the Broilga Awards Gala event, 11 November 2023 Darwin where they will be presented with their trophy on stage.
