

Annual Report Card 2022-23

2030 Targets

Tourism 2030

This is the fourth progress report on the Northern Territory's (NT) Tourism Industry Strategy 2030 (Strategy). It provides an annual update on the progress against the Strategy targets, actions and priorities.

The initial targets were set for the Strategy in 2019. Since the release of the Strategy, COVID-19 hit the sector, resulting in unprecedented impacts on the global travel industry and across the NT tourism sector. Almost four years later, operating conditions for the tourism industry are well underway to recover and the changed market environment offers new opportunities for the NT tourism sector.

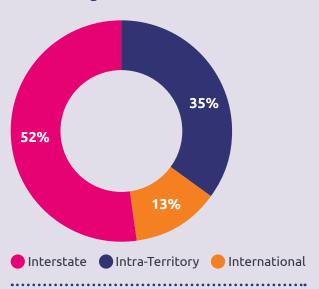

The 2030 targets of the Strategy were reviewed in early 2023 with consideration given to changes in the operating environment, macroeconomic factors, the impacts of COVID-19 and the ongoing recovery of the tourism sector. This report card reflects these updated targets published in September 2023 in the NT's Tourism Industry Strategy 2030 Update.

Target measurements

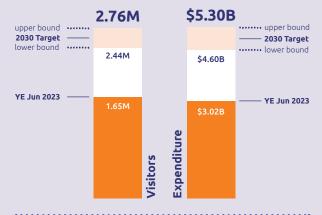

Growth in the tourism industry is measured several ways; for example, by counting visitor nights, visitor numbers and visitor spend.
Fundamentally, growth is driven by increases in tourism expenditure. Higher levels of tourism expenditure in the NT translates to income for businesses and jobs for workers, as well as a wide range of benefits for the broader community – including supporting investment in new infrastructure and enhancing liveability through new experiences and events.

Holiday visitors and spend are highlighted separately due to the agency's ability to influence visitation through its programs and the critical importance of these visitors to the tourism sector.

Achieving the Strategy targets

The NT Government has a vision to deliver a $40 billion economy by 2030 with a target of 50% renewables by 2030 and net zero emissions by 2050. Tourism has been identified as a priority industry, critical to growing the economy, attracting private investment, creating jobs and contributing to the Government's sustainability agenda.

The Strategy sets out targets for visitor arrivals and spend; the total overnight visitor arrivals to the NT are projected to reach between 2.44 million and 2.76 million by 2030, accounting for between $4.6 billion and $5.3 billion in expenditure. In terms of holiday visitors, targets are for between 1.25 million and 1.43 million holiday visitors by 2030, and $2.6 billion to $3.0 billion in holiday visitor expenditure.

Across the current phase of the Strategy (2023-2026), the visitor target forecast shows an annual growth rate of 6.4%, reflecting a moderation in the growth of domestic visitors offset by the continuing recovery of international source markets to 2025. In the final phase of the Strategy, between 2027 and 2030, the forecast shows visitors increasing on average 5.5% annually as the visitor economy returns to a steady state and the Strategy actions take effect.

Under the target scenario, visitor expenditure would grow on average 7.4% annually from 2025-2027, given the impact of the recovering international market and would then grow on average 8.2% per annum from 2027-2030.

Looking to the future

Despite the pandemic setbacks, there have been significant achievements since the launch of the Strategy, with new products and experiences developed, funding secured for major tourism infrastructure enabling projects and upgrades in the Territory's national parks.

Acknowledging the progress to date from working collectively, the update of the Strategy considers changes in the operating environment and consumer landscape. It identifies three critical themes for the upcoming phase of the Strategy – resolving aviation access issues, reducing seasonality and a recommitment to sustainable tourism practices. A focus on these critical themes embedded within the strategic framework will drive continued efforts across the public and private sectors to support the sustainable growth ambitions of the tourism sector.

The successful implementation of the Strategy could see total visitation to the NT reach 2.8 million by 2030, with an associated visitor spend of $5.3 billion. This ambitious target can only can only be achieved with industry and government working closely together to realise the opportunities from planned investment and commitments to support the NT tourism industry.
